

FRENCH STORYTELLING SESSIONS IN MIDLOTHIAN LIBRARIES

FEBRUARY AND MARCH 2016

Our French Modern Language Assistants are offering French Story Telling sessions in Midlothian Libraries in February and March. This is a fantastic opportunity to get the wider community involved in language learning as part of the 1+2 initiative. They have already had a session in Gorebridge which was enthusiastically received by library staff, children and parents alike. Please spread the word!!
