Questions about dyslexia? Can you spare half an hour between 7 o'clock and half past 8 on 9th March?

Why not 'drop-in' to Penicuik Library where Dyslexia Scotland South East will be providing an opportunity for people with dyslexia, parents and teachers working with dyslexics to find out about dyslexia and discuss issues with others who have experienced similar problems.

DSSE committee members, library staff and other professionals - e.g. CALL Scotland and Steps to Inclusion representatives - will be available to provide information and review resources that might help resolve some typical dyslexic difficulties.
