

Education
Scotland
Foghlam Alba

23 November 2017

Dear Parents/Carers

Primary 1 Bookbug Family Bag and School Events

As part of the Scottish Government's Read, Write, Count campaign your child will receive a free bag of books next week during Book Week Scotland (27 November-3 December).

Your child will be also be taking part in special school events to support this learning.

Your child's P1 Bookbug Bag will contain:

- three picture books
- a white board
- activity book
- packet of colouring pencils

The bag is designed to help you and your child to have fun with reading, writing and counting at home. You and your family can take part in many events happening in libraries and other venues all over the country during Book Week Scotland. Find out more at www.bookweekscotland.com.

For more information:

St Mary's Primary School Twitter: www.twitter.com/stmarysrcps

Read, Write, Count: www.readwritecount.scot

Simple, fun ideas to help parents to build reading, writing and counting in to everyday life, whether that's at the shops, on the bus, at mealtimes or simply playing at home.

Scottish Book Trust: www.scottishbooktrust.com/readwritecount

Information about Read, Write, Count Bags in your area.

Parentzone: www.education.gov.scot/parentzone

Up-to-date information about learning in Scotland, practical advice and ideas to support children's learning at home.

Thank you for your continued support.

Liz Laird